Fabulous Frozen Foods

Mckayla and Grandma Ali

"Poor health has a way of humbling us like nothing else can. This past month has been difficult for my family and me because I was diagnosed with a blood clot in my kidney. It happened very suddenly and my body came to a grinding halt; my sense of health and well-being was interrupted so dramatically that I was left with the reality that I am not in charge. God is in charge and his power is ever present in our lives. He is mindful of each of his children (me!) and loves us beyond our ability to understand.

I have been comforted by his love and that of my family; friends and business associates have also reached out to console me. I cherish the life I have been given and feel deep gratitude that I am still here on earth. I plan to slow down a bit and live daily seeking more spiritual meaning; I also have plans to be the best grandma in the whole world and continue to love my incredible family."

Research labs across the world demonstrate that there is growing evidence proving blueberries are an important part of a healthy diet. They help in the prevention of everything from aging to bacterial infections to cancer! Among all fruits and vegetables, blueberries rank among the highest in antioxidant levels.

"I love the Dole Blueberries (#2030). Not only do they taste good but they are so very good for you. After trying some blueberry lemonade at one of my favorite restaurants in our town and LOVING it, now I fix it at home all the time. I just fix some lemonade from frozen concentrate and add some of the frozen Dole Blueberries. When the blueberries have defrosted some in the lemonade, I take a fork and smash them a little to bring more of the juices, flavor and color out into the lemonade. MMMM! It makes a wonderful refreshing drink!"

"We loved the Breakfast Blend Potatoes (#5026) that we took home. I made a breakfast skillet out of them this morning. I just heated them in the pan with some chopped up precooked bacon, scrambled eggs and cheese. It took only 10 minutes so I had time to make a hearty breakfast before work. There were leftovers so I put it in a tortilla and made a burrito for lunch. It was so yummy!"

"My favorite use for POM is to make Pomegranate Jelly which my family loves. We've used the plain pomegranate juice and the cherry and blueberry blends. All have been delicious. This jelly is delicious on toast, but can be served with turkey instead of cranberry sauce, and is great on pancakes. It's one of my favorites."

— Kim Henke of
AllAboutFoodStorage.com

Kim's Pomegranate Jelly

4 cups POM pomegranate juice (#4733)

7 ½ cups white sugar

2 lemons, juiced

1 (6 fluid ounce) package liquid pectin

Combine pomegranate and lemon juices with sugar in a large, stainless steel saucepan. Bring to boil over high heat, and stir in liquid pectin all at once. Bring to full rolling boil for exactly one minute. Remove from heat and skim off foam. Ladle into hot sterilized jars to about ¼ inch of top. Seal and process in a boiling water canner for 5 minutes, or use inversion method.

Savory Stew Seasoning

1 lb. bag....#1540....$3.79

"I threw together a quick crock pot stew on Sunday and tried a new seasoning blend that I think is great for flavoring food storage basics. Savory Stew Seasoning (#1540) from Alison's Pantry is a flavorful blend of oregano, thyme, rosemary and garlic that seasons a soup or stew in one step. I love spice blends for this reason... no guesswork. It's great in traditional stew, or perfect for upgrading a combination of dehydrated veggies and tomato products for an easy emergency meal. I think it would also work well to season gravies or stroganoff. Here's the simple recipe for the stew I made in my crock pot:

Place 1 lb. of stew meat in crock pot. Add about 4-5 cups of chopped potatoes, carrots, celery and onion. Stir together 1 can cream of mushroom soup, 1 soup can of water, 1 small can tomato sauce, and 2-3 Tbsp. Savory Stew Seasoning and pour over meat and vegetables. Cook for 8 hours on low."

Salsa Seasoning

SPECIAL $4.59

"We can whip up speedy salsa using our canned tomatoes with Salsa Seasoning (#1898) from Alison's Pantry. It's a complete spice blend that can be added to fresh or canned tomatoes for instant salsa. You can leave it as-is or dress it up with avocado (my favorite), diced peaches, diced mango, or pineapple tidbits. I love this spice blend for enhancing my food storage. I think stocking basic foods and plenty of spices give me a lot of options. I can give my bottled tomatoes lots of different flavors with a variety of seasonings. If I don't have salsa on hand, I can still stir some up in seconds." —Kim Henke of AllAboutFoodStorage.com

Montreal Steak Seasoning
1 lb. bag...#1023...$4.79
SPECIAL $4.09

"Montreal Steak Seasoning (#1023) is so good; we use this peppery blend every time we grill steaks. We douse the steaks in Worcestershire sauce and then sprinkle on the Montreal Steak Seasoning. Sometimes we freeze the meat in this mixture so the steaks are marinated and ready to grill when they thaw. It's also great mixed into ground beef for flavorful hamburgers. Sprinkled over roasts, it makes drippings pre-seasoned for gravy."

SALE

Southwest Mesquite
1 lb. bag...#1897...$5.39
SPECIAL $4.59

"Tonight we tried a new spice blend, Southwest Mesquite Seasoning (#1897) Per the package instructions, I added 1 cup water to 1/4 c. of the marinade mix and poured it over a whole chicken. When I do this again, I will make sure I pour some of the marinade under the chicken skin as well...wish I wouldn't have been in such a hurry or I would have thought of it! You can also use this spice blend as a rub. The marinade gave the chicken a nice southwestern flavor without being overpowering. It also made the chicken skin golden and crispy, which my husband loved. You'll have to forgive my immodest chicken. Like I said, I was in a hurry, so I didn't tie up the legs. Anyway, I admit the presentation lacks a little....class, but the flavor was first rate. I only recently learned how easy it is to roast a whole chicken."

"Vegalene (#1212) is probably the overall most popular product with my customers in my nearly seven years with Alison's Pantry. It works the same as the well-known non stick spray most of us are familiar with - but does not have the offensive odor it has. It is also much less expensive to use as Vegalene comes in a 21 ounce can instead of a 7-8 ounce one! Almost without exception, the ladies I recommend it to that try it like it so well that they continue using it. It's the one product that I keep on hand for customers who panic when they run out between orders."

Oven Baked Apple Pancakes

- 4 cups Dawn Apple Pie Filling (#1640)
 2 Tbsp butter
 1 tsp ground cinnamon (#1005)
 3 eggs
 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
 1 tsp lemon zest (#1433)
 Spiff-E-Whip topping (#1679)

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. In a 10-inch cast iron skillet, warm the apple pie filling, butter, cinnamon. In a bowl, beat the eggs until frothy. Add the milk, flour, sour cream, lemon zest, and salt. Beat just until batter is smooth. Pour over the hot apple mixture in the skillet, and immediately put the pan in the oven. Bake for 20 to 25 minutes, or until the pancake is puffed up and golden brown; top with Spiff-E-Whip topping. Serve warm. Thanks to Kimberly Grant of Winfield, WV.

"You can prolong the life of powdered items like powdered buttermilk, powdered sugar or baking soda using a vacuum sealer. Just place a plastic bag into the jar (Alison's Pantry Bread Bags (#1647) are perfect for this), fill the bag with the product, twist the bag closed and press down into the jar. Then seal the canning lid to the top of the jar. This prevents the Food Saver Vacuum Sealer from sucking the fine powder into itself which can gum up the machine and damage it."

Heavenly Cinnamon Chip Bread

- 3 Tbsp SAF instant yeast (#2446) 1/2 c sugar
 1 c liquid eggs, like Egg Beaters [or, 4 whole eggs; or, 1/4 c. dehydrated egg powder + 1/2 c. water] 3-3/4 c. warm water
 4 tsp salt 3 Tbsp canola oil (or grapeseed)
 2-1/2 c Gerken's Mini Cinnamon Drops (#2776)
 10-12 cups flour (1 used about 4 cups hard white wheat flour and 6 cups all-purpose white flour)

In mixing bowl, combine 4 cups flour, yeast, and sugar. Add water, eggs, and oil. Beat well until combined. Stir in salt, cinnamon drops, and more flour until dough pulls away from sides of bowl. Knead with mixer for about 5 minutes. Place dough in greased bowl, cover, and let rise for 1 hour. Shape dough into 4 loaves, and let rise again until doubled (about an hour) in pans. Bake at 375 degrees for about 30 minutes. From Ken Henke of AllAboutFoodStorage.com.

Pantry Pointer

Doctors and dietitians everywhere recommend that we eat more whole grains and more fiber every day. A great way to get those extra grams of fiber is to switch to whole wheat pasta. In the past, whole wheat pastas were very strong tasting, and usually gummy too. Today's whole wheat pastas are completely different. They are mild tasting and nicely firm and are enjoyed by adults and kids alike!

Pantry Pointer

Vital wheat gluten occurs naturally in all wheat and wheat-derived white flours.

Adding dry vital wheat gluten powder to your doughs helps improve the rise and texture of bread.

Bakers use it to give the yeast a boost because it contains a high amount of gluten-forming proteins.

Use it in heavier breads that rise slowly, such as whole grains, rye, or ones loaded with sugar, dried fruit and nuts.

Use 1 teaspoon per cup of all-purpose flour or up to 3 teaspoons for every cup of whole grain or rye flours. Or for every loaf of bread, add one tablespoon.

"Xagave is a HUGE hit in Colorado! We sampled it right out of the bottle so people could taste how good it is straight. Everyone commented on how it tastes a lot like honey. Then we showed them the Xagave cookbook. Wow! Talk about impressive! It is a must have cookbook! We are so excited about this new product. Even our 8 year old son has tossed out the sugar and only wants Xagave. He loves it and he even made Kool-aid with it! A child giving up sugar on his own? Now that's a miracle. Thanks Alison for always keeping us on the cutting edge with such great tasting quality products!"
